About Paul Harvey

Paul met TKV Desikachar in 1976, this led to a two-year stay in India from 1979. Returning many times he studied individually with his teacher from 1979 until 2002.

To complement this work, he completed a foundation course in Core Process Psychotherapy and trained as a counsellor and facilitator in Transpersonal Psychology.

He directs a Yoga centre in Bristol, teaches individuals, trains teachers and leads workshops on Yoga and Yoga Chanting.

Introductory Workshop Courses

IW courses are open to all except complete beginners and offer Yoga for any background or style, either for personal development or professional skills. They offer an opportunity to explore this approach to Yoga and are also a prerequisite to Foundation Study and Teacher Training Courses.

Aims: To present a view of Yoga through which students can deepen their own practice and study. The role of this Course is not to train students as Yoga teachers.

Framework: The IW course reflect the teachings of TKV Desikachar and his father and teacher T Krishnamacharya as taught to Paul Harvey over 25 years through:

- Guidance in emphasising a practice to support your life.
- Understanding the principles which inspire Yoga practice.
- An overview of important teachings around body and mind.
- Familiarisation with basic Yoga terms and practice techniques.
- Appreciating how your body can work effectively in asana.
- Deepening our work with the breath in practice.
